

DIXON ELKS WILL BE WELL REPRESENTED AT GRAND LODGE MEETING

Chicago Club to Be Formed—Annual Shows to Be Resumed.

"To Chicago 500 strong," was the slogan adopted for Dixon lodge No. 779 B. P. O. Elks last evening when the proposal of organization a "Chicago Club" to participate in the big parade which will mark the Grand Lodge convention in Chicago early in July was submitted. Without a dissenting vote the members, of whom there were more present than at any meeting for years, decided in favor of the Chicago trip and the proposed organization.

The organization of the club will be in charge of the following committee, named by Exalted Ruler Charles Miller: Chairman, Louis Pitcher; B. F. Downing, H. W. Harms, William Nixon, Frank J. Cahill, R. C. Bovey, H. H. Heinze, Grover Gehant, J. B. Lennon and C. S. Evenson.

For Big Delegation.
Within a short time this committee will outline its plans for the club, which will demonstrate that Dixon is on the map in great big letters and that Dixon Elks are as enthusiastic and as alive as those of any other city in the country. It is the present plan in the parade, to make the trip to and from the city in a special train and possibly take a band or drum corps along to head the delegation in the parade. Further details of the club organization will be announced as they are perfected.

To Given Annual Show.
At last evening's meeting of the lodge it was also unanimously decided to resume the annual theatrical attraction by the members of the lodge. For several years the Elks' shows were top liners among the local talent productions, but last year, because of the demands made upon the people for war activities no show was given. The show will be presented early in the spring, the date to be announced later, and the committee to take charge of the performance, named last evening is: C. P. Rice, B. F. Downing, Dr. Willard Thompson, Dr. L. R. Evans, Harry A. Roe, Freeman Robinson and Earl E. Holdridge.

Was Roll Call Night.
The exceptionally large attendance at last evening's meeting of the lodge was due to its Roll Call night and over twice as many members responded to roll call than at any meeting in the history of the lodge. Several candidates were given the initiatory work and a large number of applications for membership were presented. Following the business meeting the House committee served refreshments and a fine social session ensued.

Wood said this morning that he knows of no location near Kenosha which will answer the requirements of such a project.

OPERATORS NOW AGREE TO TAKE BODY'S AWARDS

Specify, However, That It is Only for Time of Lever Law.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Mine operators in the central competitive field today told the commission named to settle the bituminous coal strike that they would accept with a single reservation any award the commission might make.

The operators said they would not be a party to the fixing of coal prices beyond the period of effectiveness of the Lever law, the war time measure, under which the government has controlled food and fuel prices. Ralph Crews, counsel for the central operators, explained that without making this reservation, the operators could not legally join any price fixing agreement. He also said the operators would not make their acceptance of the commission's award contingent upon the preparation of answers to a series of questions which the operators yesterday asked the commission.

Basis For Wage Contract.
In accepting the commission's authorization, the operators, Mr. Crews said, understood that the commissions award should, "of itself constitute a final contract between the miners and operators for the period of time fixed by the commission."

President Robinson reminded him that President Wilson's letter creating the commission authorized it only to make an award which might be used as "a basis for a wage contract." He asked if the operators would not modify the language in their acceptance accordingly, and Mr. Crews finally agreed that the commission should determine that point.

"The mine workers understand that the award shall be a basis of a new wage agreement and not of itself an agreement," said John L. Lewis, acting president of the mine workers. "I trust the record is not being made here which can be used subsequently as a basis for a refusal by the operators to write into a wage agreement the commission's award."

President Robinson said Mr. Crews stipulation that the commission should have power to dominate what the procedure should be had cleared up this point.

Same Demands Made
Miners' representatives put before the committee their full demands as originally made and refused by the operators before the calling of the coal strike last November.

Acting President Lewis recited demands for an increase of sixty percent in wages, the six hour workday and five day week, for the abolition of double shifts and for the consideration by districts of internal differences and defended each of them.

The living conditions and the social condition of the miners, the environment in which he has been compelled to raise his family have ever been too low," he said.

UNITED STATES WAIVE CLAIM TO ANY PART OF GERMAN SHIPS TAKEN

Announcement Made at Last Meeting of Supreme Council Today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Jan. 13.—In the supreme council today Hugh C. Wallace, the American ambassador, raised the question whether the council intended to maintain the percentages previously adopted for the distribution among the Allied and associated powers of the warship tonnage to be given up by Germany.

Receiving an answer in the affirmative, Ambassador Wallace informed the council that the United States in that case waived its claim to any part of this tonnage.

The council today made a slight modification in the draft of the Hungarian treaty, dealing with the furnishing of coal by Hungary to Poland and Czechoslovakia. The document now is considered finally shaped and already is in the printers' hands.

Probably Last Meeting.
The council decided that publication of all acts of the peace conference be made in French by the French government and in English by the British.

The subject of the demand by Turkey for a decision regarding the prohibition of business relations between her and the central powers was taken up and it was decided that German goods might be sent to Turkey, but only through third parties.

This probably was the last meeting of the supreme council, as at present organized.

For Hungarian Treaty.
Serious consideration was given by the supreme council this morning to a plan for the appointment of a committee of ambassadors to complete the details for the presentation and signing of the Hungarian peace treaty and to carry through the other unfinished business of the peace conference.

The decision, however, was left to the heads of the governments of the principal powers.

The necessity for the return home of the Italian and British members of the council was advanced as the reason why another organization should be created. It is thought that the premises now taking part in the conferences here—Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti—will approve of the idea of creating the committee of ambassadors, as many questions likely to come up in future in connection with the execution of the various peace treaties will be diplomatic questions as well as peace problems.

IMPOSSIBLE TO REPEAL FEDERAL DRY AMENDMENT

Anti-Saloon League Attorney Authority for Statement.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Jan. 13.—State legislatures cannot under the law repeal ratification of the constitutional prohibition amendment, Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League declared today in a statement discussing recommendations for repeal made to the law makers of New York and Maryland by the governors of those states.

Mr. Wheeler cited the attempt of New Jersey and Ohio to withdraw ratification of the fourteenth amendment. Congress refused to accept the repeal and both states were counted among those voting affirmatively. Without their ratification the amendment lacked sufficient votes to become operative.

Chief Justice Marshall was quoted by Mr. Wheeler as follows:
"The principal is asserted that one legislature is competent to repeal an act which a former legislature was competent to pass. The correctness of this principle, so far as respects general legislation, can never be controverted. But if an act be done under a law, a succeeding legislature cannot undo it. The past cannot be recalled by the most absolute power."

Publication of War History to Be Consummated Soon.

Dixon Post No. 12, American Legion, which has undertaken the completion of Lee County's War History, with the purpose of publishing it in about a month, has started a solicitation throughout the county to secure the name, military rank and service record of every man and woman of the county who served in the World War. It is hoped to have a brief paragraph concerning every citizen of the county who participated in the great conflict in any way, and to that end the Post officers state they will be very grateful for assistance. Every soldier or some relative of his is invited to send a brief description of the individual's war record, organization, etc., to Commander Sherwood Dixon, this city. Fear of duplicating some one else's contribution to the record should not prevent anyone sending in information, as the post officials will thereby have a check, and will be more sure of getting the record complete.

Subscriptions to the history, which will go to press with the Dixon Post's additions in about a month, will start soon, as all who desire a copy of the book must place their order with the Post, as the number of books printed and bound will be controlled absolutely by the number subscribed for and no extra copies will be available after the edition is printed.

ATTEMPTS TO PROFIT IN REMOVING BODIES OF SOLDIERS CHARGED

Allegation Introduced in Senate Today By Colorado Senator.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Charges by relatives of American soldiers buried in France that undertakers and others were attempting to commercialize their grief in connection with the movement to have the bodies brought home, were presented to the senate today by Senator Thomas, democrat, Col. "I do not know whether the charge is true," Senator Thomas declared, "but it is in line with a number of circumstances that developed since the close of the war, showing there is some sort of an organization that is designed to derive profit from the plan of returning the bodies."

The question of bringing home the bodies was brought before the house foreign affairs committee today and later a resolution was introduced by Chairman Porter to direct the president to have the bodies returned.

Stephen T. Early, former captain of infantry and Secretary of the American Field of Honor Association, asked the committee to give a hearing to the association's representatives before acting finally. The association does not oppose return of any soldier's body if requested by next of kin, but proposes a permanent memorial cemetery in France for those who remain there and recommends against a blanket return of the bodies, because it says, parents proposing this will have no complete assurance that they will receive the remains of their loved ones, in many cases, but may even receive the remains of Germans.

Urges Congressional Investigation of All Awards of War Medals

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Jan. 13.—Urging congressional investigation of the award of army decorations for services during the war, Representative Gallivan, democrat, Massachusetts, declared in the house today that more distinguished service medals in proportion were awarded to army officers who never got nearer the front than Washington than to those who saw service overseas.

Congress should investigate all awards of medals and crosses, Mr. Gallivan said, so as to determine why some recommendations were acted upon favorably and others disregarded.

"The Distinguished Service medal has been cheapened and certainly ridiculed by the bold and brazen manner in which it has been passed out to those who belong to the elect," said Mr. Gallivan. "It has been used as a reward for friendship; it has been used to placate those who have been removed to make way for some one else."

Fought With Red Ink.
"The reading of the sum total of the citations in award in the distinguished service medal to several chair officers of the general staff who never left Washington during the war, if believed, would certainly impress one that the war was fought with red ink at mahogany desks near the shadows of Washington monument."

"Surely the 'lounge lizards' of the second army of the Potomac can have no quarrel with their comrades, the 'lobby lancers' of the capital as to the number of D. S. M.'s these two valiant units received for heroic service in this war."

"As for France, wherever the commander in chief sent a 'commissioned messenger boy' on an errand, the D. S. M. was sure to be the reward."

"The Kaiser," continued Mr. Gallivan, "with some spark of appreciation for consistency yet alive, said: 'Me and Gott.' Not so your chief of staff, U. S. A., Peyton C. March, who sees no reason for including 'Gott.' It is simply 'Me' with him."

The failure to send Major General Leonard Wood overseas in command of troops was a case of international notoriety, Mr. Gallivan said, adding that General Wood "was never given an important active command during the war," but "to placate public opinion something must be done."

"The bestowal of the D. S. M. on General Wood," he continued, "is heartily approved by the entire military service, I am told, but the reason for such bestowal looks like an interrogation point in the minds of every one who has a knowledge of General Wood's treatment."

Discuss Procedure in Hearing of Socialists Husted from Assembly

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Albany, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Discussion of the procedure to be followed in the hearing on the eligibility of the five socialist members who have been suspended from the assembly took up the greater part of the session in the lower house today. It was decided that the hearings would be public and stenographic copies of all testimony would be supplied to members.

Assemblyman Theodore Roosevelt, in his maiden speech, declared that the assembly had embarked upon a grave matter and he considered it the duty of every assemblyman to be informed absolutely on every detail of the hearing in order that a square deal be given to the suspended members. He then introduced a resolution that stenographic copies of the evidence be furnished all members. It was adopted.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt Gross, of Franklin Grove, were here Monday trading.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED--AND EARNED

A Modern Story of Home and Business

MARY RYAN PLANS A FLAT

CHAPTER 32
Mary Ryan had listened quietly when I told her of Marion Hovey. What Robert had said of her capacity for doing all the things. Then she said:
"Gee! but it would be nice to know all them things. How to cook, and--everything."
"I'd like to see her sell a hat, or earn a dollar," I returned sarcastically. "She'd probably starve to death if she had to earn the money to buy materials to cook with."
"Did her father leave her anything?"
"I believe so--a little. Bob says just enough to live on and keep the home."
"She has them two young kids to raise too?"
"They aren't so very young. They'll be out of the way in three or four years."
"What makes you speak so bitter, Gerry? Sounds as if you were jealous."
"Nonsense!" I knew there was a shadow of irritation in my voice.
"No, it ain't nonsense. Say Gerry, a girl like Marion Hovey makes me feel like two cents. Any man can earn money, but no man can make a home--unless there's a woman in it. Lots of bachelor girls and really old maids live alone or together, and they make a home. But did you ever hear of men having a real home? I guess not! Not on your tinfoy. Some of them pretend they do. They hire a flat and a Jap, and pretend they has a home. But it ain't no home at all. It's just a place where they stay and eat and sleep. There ain't no home spirit in it--not a bit."
"What a queer girl you are, Mary. I never heard such peculiar notions. Where in the world do you get them?"
"They just come, that's all. Say Gerry, I've a notion to do something."
"Now what's in your mind?"
"I've a notion to get a flat. I'm sick of living in one room at the top of someone else's stairs. I want my own kitchenette, and my own bathroomette. I don't mind if my table makes a bed at night, if it is my own table and my own bed, but I do mind when it ain't. I want one of them nifty window boxes you see in some places. I won't kick if I can't have a shays-long and a piano lamp, if I can have an easy chair and a gas stove."

"What in the world are you talking about?"
"My flat. Leastways the one I'm going to have. Yes, I am!" as I laughed, "Just talking to you made up my mind. I was kinda wobbly before."
"All the same I would think it over if I were you," I replied. "What do you know about cooking? You'd be down sick in no time."
"I'm sick now. My heart's sick, and my stomach's sick, and my legs are sick. It can't be much worse. I ain't no heart for anything when I give all my money for a hall bedroom, and no stomach for the cooking I don't like, and my legs are about worn out climbing them stairs. So I guess, Gerry, I won't be so worse off even if I am sick. Just think of making a cup of nice hot chocolate before I go to bed, or an oyster stew with honest-to-goodness oysters swimming in it--oysters what you can see. And in the morning to have a cup of coffee what was coffee, and not some kind of bean ground up to look like coffee, but tastes like something else. And I'd have griddle cakes too, nice brown ones all swimming in syrup with big bunches of butter between them so they'd look like little hills till the butter melted and I'd have--"
"For heaven's sake, Mary Ryan, will you stop! I've laughed until I am sick. A lot you know about cooking all those things. Where would you learn?"
"Can't I read? Ain't book stores trying to make a living selling books, and ain't there some cook books among them? Ain't I got common sense and when I read take a cup of sugar and a half a cup of salt, can't I do it--if I have a cup? It makes me mad to talk about it. You just watch little Mary do it. No more boarding houses for little bright eyes as soon as I find that flat."
"When you do, I'll invite myself to dinner."
"No you won't! I'll do the inviting myself. Will you please take dinner with me in my flat, Mrs. Meredith--you and Bob--Mr. Meredith?"
"With pleasure, Miss Ryan." I gave a mock curtsy, but even then I laughed. I wondered why Mary hesitated when she spoke of Bob.
Tomorrow--Bob--Envis Mary's New Home.

WORLD ON EVE OF BIG REVIVAL--HOLDERBY

Speaker Firm in His Drive for Return of Family Altars Here.

Rev. William M. Holderby, representing the Family Altar league, was heard by about 50 men and women at a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. at noon yesterday. The speaker held his listeners' attention from the time he opened his remarks until he closed with an appeal not only to the ministry of Dixon, which was well represented, but to the heads of the Dixon homes for a return of the family altar. His appeal was most forceful and in the few minutes that he spoke, he greatly impressed those who heard him with the vital importance of the subject to revive which he has been making a nation wide campaign.
He was heard in Grace Evangelical church in two addresses on Sunday and large congregations were impressed by the importance of his message as well as the force with which he presented it. He used as an example the national security of our country, which is supported upon two pillars, the Christian Sabbath and the family altar. "The composition of the two pillars is deteriorating and crumbling rapidly," were the words of the speaker, "and something must be done and done at once. I am not a fatalist but I want to make this declaration clear to all here today; unless within the next five years we do not re-entrench with a thing that makes for Godliness, something so climatic may happen, I cannot say what, that it might give us cause to think. There is but one thing to be done at this time and if you do not believe it just sit fast as some of you have done in the past."
On Eve of Great Revival
"It is my belief that we are on the eve of a great revival, and if I did not think it I would not say it, and that is that the church of Jesus Christ must confess, repent and start anew. As an illustration, let me liken the present condition to a pyramid divided into three sections. The top section we will call our country, the middle section the church and the bottom or basic section, the home. At present the middle section is at fault and the professedly Christian home life of America is the one that should be indicted. The world is in need and the family altar and the open word of God is the hope of saving the world."

Rev. Holderby is a staunch believer in the study of the Bible in the public schools throughout the country and expressed himself as favoring some action which would bring about the immediate return of the Bible as a study into the schools of the United States. He is a speaker who is thoroughly acquainted with the message he brings and it is to be regretted that he could not have been given the opportunity of addressing a much larger assemblage.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

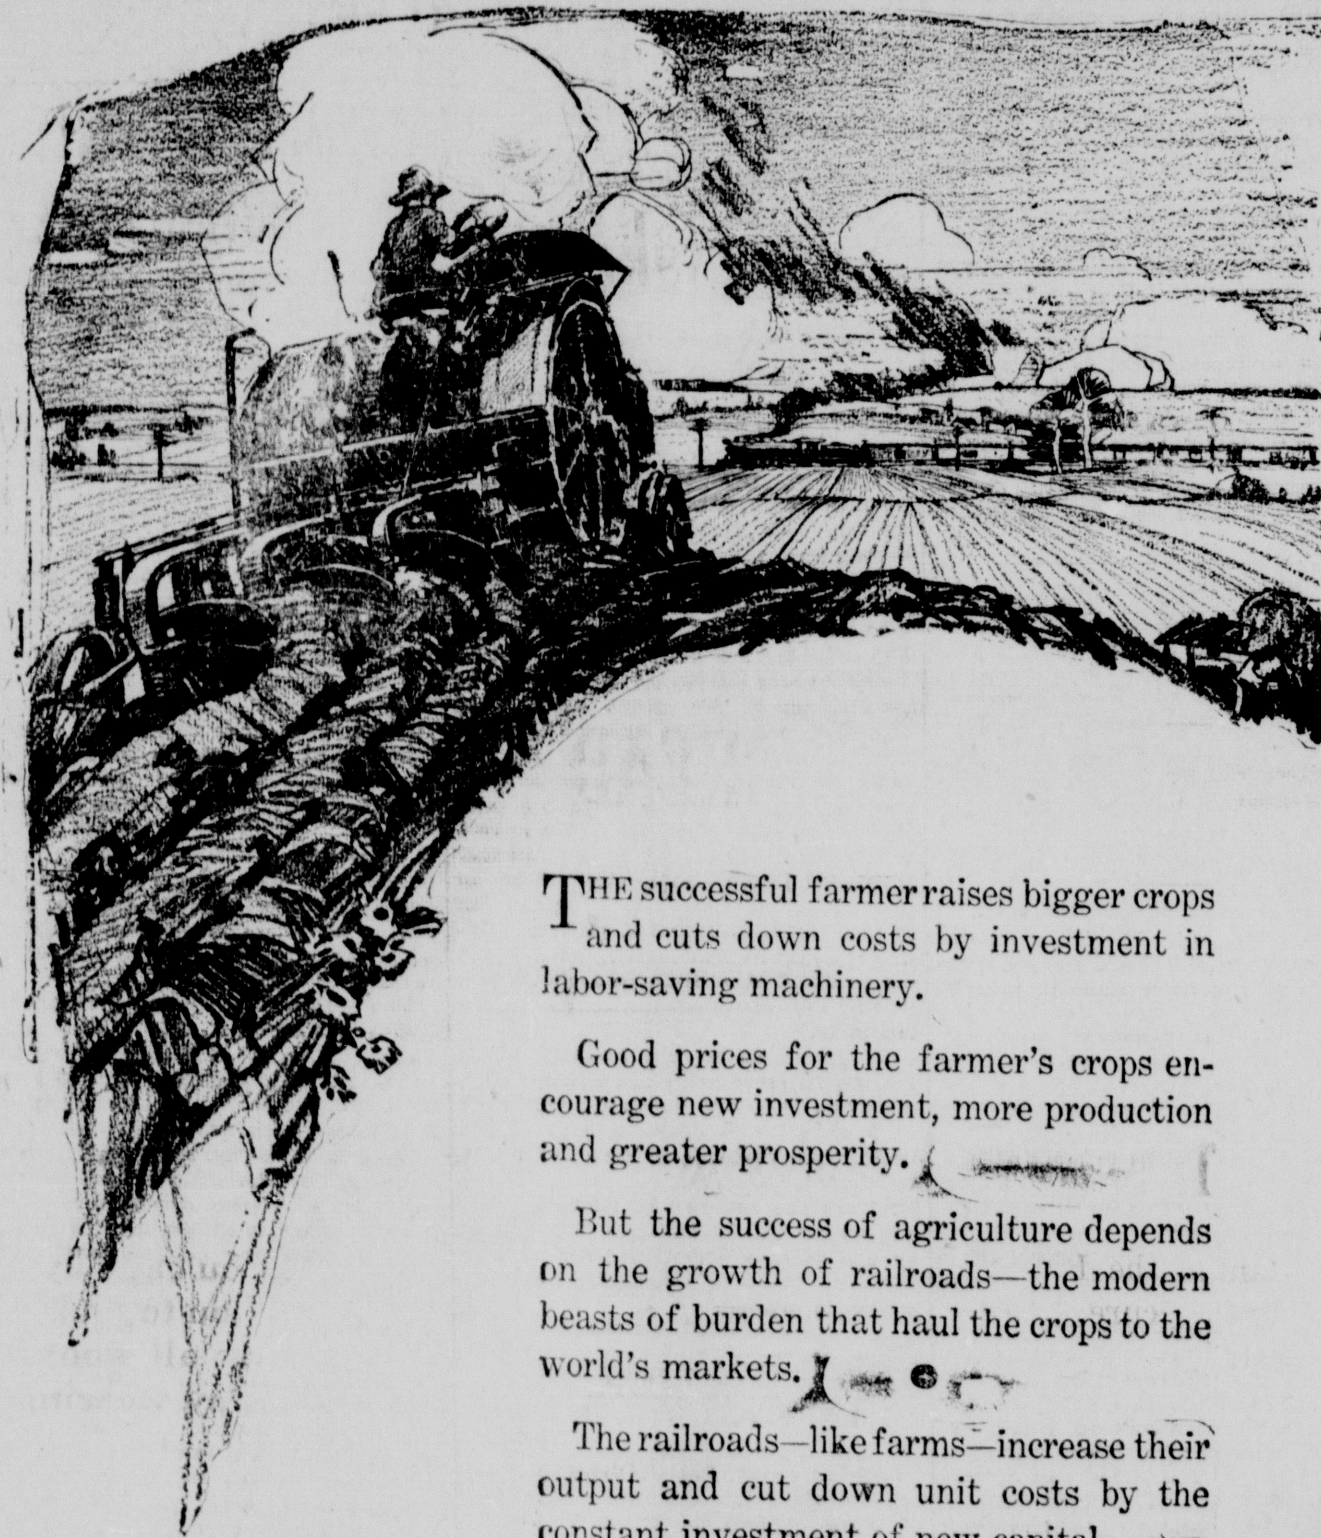

Insist On Genuine Ford Parts

Imitation "Ford" parts are being sold by many mail-order houses, down-town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners as "Ford" parts. But they are not Genuine Ford parts made by the Ford Motor Company. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatsoever with the Ford Motor Company. These imitation parts are not even made from the same grade of steel, or under the same formulas used by the Ford Company. They are counterfeit parts. Tests have shown them to break when the genuine Ford parts didn't even bend, and they generally are from thirty-five to one hundred per cent lower in quality.

The Authorized Ford Dealer is your protection. As such, we handle nothing but the Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel and each part--according to its use--is heat-treated in the way that will give it the longest wearing qualities. Every part is the same as its duplicate in your Ford or Ford truck. Our stock of parts is complete. And our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car and also your money.

INSIST ON GENUINE FORD PARTS

THE successful farmer raises bigger crops and cuts down costs by investment in labor-saving machinery.

Good prices for the farmer's crops encourage new investment, more production and greater prosperity.

But the success of agriculture depends on the growth of railroads--the modern beasts of burden that haul the crops to the world's markets.

The railroads--like farms--increase their output and cut down unit costs by the constant investment of new capital.

With fair prices for the work they do, the railroads are able to attract new capital for expanding their facilities.

Rates high enough to yield a fair return will insure railroad growth, and prevent costly traffic congestion which invariably results in poorer service at higher cost.

National wealth can increase only as our railroads grow.

Poor railroad service is dear at any price. No growing country can long pay the price of inadequate transportation facilities.

AFFLICTIONS COMPARED.

If a man has developed a felon he can easily make himself believe that this world is but a vale or sorrows. Yet if he has broken a leg a felon will seem to him scarcely worse than dropping a penny down a crack.

Twenty-five years ago, a newspaper proprietor gave his employees a very nervous day. Nothing could please him, everything roused his temper
from the squeaking shoes of the foreman to the way the greenest reporter wore his hat. It came out finally that what had set the "Old Man" on edge and given him the air of one who hated his fellowman was a letter informing him he must expect a raise in the price of print paper to half a cent a pound.

That newspaper proprietor has been gathered to his fathers. But were he living today we know he could look back upon the unhappy day of a quarter century ago and wonder how such a pin prick could ruffle him for a moment. In recent months, prices have ranged from six to eight cents a pound for paper. Notice has gone out that shortly it will be close to nine cents.

If stick-up men would confine their thuggery to business men about to go into bankruptcy you might probably never hear about them. For such a business man, having a real worry, would forget in five minutes that he has been robbed of a tin watch. Afflictions of one day sometimes shrink to nothing when compared with the blows of the next.

A CAUTIOUS CANDIDATE.

Senator Robert L. Owens of Oklahoma is a circumbendibus candidate for the Democratic nomination for President.
In a recent speech, the senator applied reverse English to himself and shed his hat into the ring with a backhand flip. He said that the duties of the presidency were appalling, but that some one must discharge them. He asserted that the candidate must be a believer in popular government, and that he was that kind of a believing Democrat. He declared that the party's candidate must not be offensive to woman suffragists or prohibitionists, and that he had favored both. Although it is perfectly plain to any one that he might have gone further and pointed out that the next President must be a man who washes his teeth, owns a Liberty bond and stops, looks and listens before he crosses a railroad track and that he himself does all these things, Senator Owens mercifully restrained himself from making any additional comparisons.

APARTMENT HOUSE HENS.

Adopt six hens and avoid dollar eggs is the stirring advice given city folk by the president of the American Poultry Association. Such counsel listens good and contains its kernel of truth, for if every family had its flock of hens it naturally follows that eggs would cost merely the price of chicken feed. However, there are some drawbacks, unless the stony hearts of present day landlords in some wise can be softened.
With dogs and cats prohibited and even children frowned upon within the narrow confines of city apartments, we can imagine what the landlord would say the first time the flat echoed with the triumphant cackle of the mother of a new laid egg.

Just why the Democrats selected San Francisco for their convention is hard to understand. They should not have hoped that they could lose a seasoned traveler like William Jennings Bryan.
They must have had some other reason for choosing the jumping off place.

A Gypsy woman recently sold her husband to another woman for $5,000.
Most of us couldn't expect to bring such a price, nor would such a fancy figure be demanded.

"Drink and Be Merry, for tomorrow
we die" is an appropriate tune to sing
while having a round of wood alcohol highballs.

MURDER TRIAL IN MISSOURI MAY BE
FULL OF THRILLS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Gallatin, Mo., Jan. 13.—H. Y. Tarwater was arraigned in court this afternoon for preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering Wesley L. Robertson.

Two days before Christmas, December 23, 1919, Huch Y. Tarwater, 52 years old, city clerk of Gallatin, and president of a local telephone company, walked into the back office of the Gallatin Democrat and shot Wesley L.
Robertson, senior partner and editor of the Democrat, to death. Tarwater admits the shooting, and hints that he shot the veteran editor in self-defense.
His friends say that the tragedy was the result of political feud in the Third Congressional District of Missouri, the Home of Joshua W. Alexander, recently appointed secretary of commerce in President Wilson's cabinet.

The friends of the slain man insist that he was unarmed, and scoff at the suggestion that politics has anything to do with the killing. Tarwater, they assert, bore the dead man enmity as the result of the publication in the Democrat of the statement that Tarwater had been charged with intoxication. Six months before the killing of Robertson, Tarwater had filed suit against the Democrat for libel, asserting that the newspaper has hinted that he was protecting bootleggers. This suit has not yet come to trial.

In 1918 an attempt was made to nominate the late Judge Frank P. Levelbiss of Richmond, Mo., for Congress instead of Alexander. A bitter primary fight was waged, which resulted in the nomination and later in the election of Alexander.

Following the election of Alexander to Congress, Judge Levelbiss was stabbed to death last May in the courthouse at Richmond by Robert S. Lyon, editor of the Richmond Conservator. Lyon was acquitted of murder at his trial.
He pleaded self-defense.

Tarwater, who killed the Gallatin editor, was a Divelbiss supporter in the Congressional fight. He had bought the machinery of a newspaper plant and brought it to Gallatin, intending to establish a newspaper. He is 52 years old, married, and had been a Sunday school teacher. He was removed to St.
Joseph following the shooting, as mob violence was feared.

In his dying statement Robertson asserted that Tarwater had come to his office at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of December 23 and told the editor that he did not wish him to print his name again in the Democrat. Robertson, according to his statement, told Tarwater that he was running the paper and would use his own judgment in determining that matter. Some further words followed, and, then, according to Robertson's statement, Tarwater opened fire on him.

Tarwater was overpowered and disarmed by R. J. Ball, Robertson's business partner, and postmaster of Gallatin.

Robertson had lived in Gallatin
many years, and was a former president of the Missouri Press Association.
Tarwater will be given a preliminary hearing at Gallatin January 13.

BROWN DENIES COLVER'S TALE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill., Jan. 13.—Denial of a statement credited to William B. Col-ver, federal trade commissioner, was contained in a letter addressed to Senator Gronna, chairman of the senate committee on agriculture, by Everett C.
Brown, president of the Union Stock Yards and made public here today. Mr.
Colver was quoted Jan. 9 as having told the committee that Mr. Brown had started an injunction suit to stay Department of Agriculture prosecutions of certain live stock men shortly after he had criticized the department before the committee for failure to institute such prosecutions. In another section of Mr. Colver's reported testimony Mr.
Brown was charged with requesting cessation of certain prosecutions because it would harm the packers.

Mr. Brown in his letter, said he had visited the department before and not after appearing before the committee.
He said he had asked the solicitor of the department as to the evidence upon which certain prosecutions had been based and compared adversely the action in such cases with failure to proceed against another concern which had been expelled from the local live stock exchange for profiteering on evidence collected by the Bureau of Markets.

He denied flatly that he had asked cessation of any prosecutions because of their effect on the packers. He said the injunction suits were granted in the district court at Chicago the commission men concerned had denied any wrong doing and the Department of Agriculture had procured no evidence to that effect.

WANTS LIST OF DEAF CHILDREN IN LEE CO.

State Dept. Public Welfare to Make Provision for Unfortunates.

The state department of public welfare has written to every county superintendent of schools in Illinois, seeking their co-operation in completing a survey which will give a list of all deaf children in the state. County Superintendent Miller has received a letter from H. T. White, managing officer of the Illinois School for the Deaf, which reads as follows:

"A law was enacted by the Fifty-third General Assembly which makes it compulsory for all deaf children who are physically able and who are of sound mind to attend some school where provision is made for the education of the deaf between the ages of eight and eighteen."

"We have the state school for the deaf here at Jacksonville, but we cannot reach all of the deaf children of the state without your cooperation as a county superintendent. At present we have 288 students enrolled. We know there are many more and we must find them. Never before has the need of education been so apparent as it is today. If we are to have a free, prosperous, law abiding country tomorrow we must begin today by educating all our children. Deaf children need education all the more because of their affliction. We are willing to do our part and now look to you to help us."

"We wish to make a survey of our whole state by counties so as to know as definitely as possible how many deaf children there are. We wish to know the name and age, the parents' name and address of every deaf child in your county. This is to include all deaf children whether they are of school age or not. We want all names."

"We suggest that your teachers may help you in this if you pass the notices on and present the necessity to them. Their pupils may be able to give some information if they are acquainted with the situation. We are sure that every teacher wants to help do this social service to the deaf children of our state. One of our difficulties is that deaf children do not come here young enough to obtain the best of what we have to give them. We trust that you will give this matter your sincere attention and will cooperate with us to make a better America by making better individuals."

"Very truly yours,
H. T. WHITE,
Managing Officer."

Superintendent Miller has suggested that teachers having knowledge of deaf children in the county, forward the desired information to Mr. White or to Grace E. Hasenstab, social service field worker for the deaf at the state school for the deaf at Jacksonville.

Yellow Mustard for Sore Throat, Tonsillitis

Old fashioned remedies are often the best. Yellow Mustard, in the form of plaster or poultice, has been used for generations for soreness, inflammation, congestions and swellings with most excellent results but—it blistered.

Heat causes pain and Begy's Mustardine made of pure yellow mustard, together with other pain relieving ingredients is just as hot, but quicker, cleaner, and more effective and cannot blister.

When your throat is sore, when you have pleurisy, bronchitis or a pain-shooting chest cold you can get speedy and lasting relief with this most effective preparation because heat causes pain. Every druggist has it—30 and 60 cents.

WOMEN'S OIL CO. WAS FAILURE, SO MEN TAKE CHARGE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Jan. 13.—The Women's Federal Oil Co., organized in 1916, by women, today is in the hands of a new director—all men. The company began as a million dollar corporation; its financial condition today was told by the financial secretary—cash on hand $17.75; balance in bank, 53 cents; deficit for the year $63,438.

The company dealt largely in Texas land leases. Seventy-five thousand shares were issued and there were upward of 2000 shareholders. Shares formerly brought $4.50 but today they were quoted at $1.

Mrs. H. H. Honore, Jr., was president of the company, and one of the organizers. She was the last woman connected with the concern. She said the corporation "was started with every favorable omen, but the men ruined it."

"When we turned the half million dollar stock issue over to men brokers to dispose of we had a chance to sell our stock at a minimum cost," said Mrs. Honore, "yet the promotion charges ran over 30 per cent—much too high."

"The men wanted the company from the beginning. Now let them have it."

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs. Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also useful for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Why Women Lack Energy

If you are nervous, pale, over-fatigued and lack energy, your blood is thin and impoverished. It needs more oxygen to vitalize it and stimulate the circulation throughout your entire body. Lack of oxygen in the blood always causes a lack of energy and strength.

If there is not a sufficient supply of oxygen in the blood—circulation slows down—the heart action slackens—the nerve cells do not receive proper nourishment and every organ of the body becomes sluggish and inactive. Oxygen electrifies the blood—revitalizes it, and makes it rich, red and healthy.

REOLO supplies to the blood the oxygen, organic iron and natural cell-salts that Nature requires to nourish the cells and maintain health, energy, vitality.

It stimulates the appetite, digestion and assimilation; tones up the nervous system; increases the activity of the circulation and makes the whole body glow with health.

REOLO rapidly increases the number of red blood cells—and plasma of the blood, destroys the insidious germs—burns up the worn-out cells, and sends through every artery a stream of rich red, vitalized blood that gives renewed strength, energy and calm.

Start the REOLO treatment today and you will be lighted with the steady, remarkable tonic qualities.

The large package of REOLO contains 100 tablets, sufficient for two weeks' treatment and on costs one dollar.

Sees No Chance for Fight in Lower Calif.

By Associated Press Leased Wire Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 12.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, sees little chance for holding the Dempsey-Carpenter fight at Tia Juana, Mexico. He believes it must go abroad.

"I can't see a chance in the world of holding the fight at Tia Juana," said Kearns today. "Until I went to San Diego and Tia Juana last week I thought there was a possibility of holding the bout there, but after going over the ground carefully I came to the conclusion that Lower California is not the proper site."

"In the first place, Tia Juana is beyond the extreme southwestern boundary of the United States. It is fifteen miles from San Diego and transportation facilities are sadly lacking. Then there is not a large enough local population to draw from."

Europe Will Be Able to Feed Self This Year

By Associated Press Leased Wire Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Because of the "enormously improved" conditions overseas the task of feeding Europe until the next harvest on Oct. 1 will not be the burden on the American government that it was last year, the house ways and means committee was told today by Herbert Hoover.

"From the signing of the armistice until last July 1, the provisioning of Europe cost two and one-half billion dollars," he said. "That was a burden on our government and the taxpayers. In one form or another, the United States treasury advanced $2,250,000,000 to feed Europe. But this year Europe will be largely able to feed itself by the exchange of goods and credits of $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 from the United States."

Many of these cows and heifers are bred to the very best of bulls—30-lb., 32-lb., 34-lb. and 38-lb. bulls. It's a great opportunity to get the best of breeding. Granddaughter of Aggie Cornucopia Pauline, daughter of Rag Apple Korn-dyke 8th, daughters of the Great Admiral Walker Pelly and Allamuchy Korn-dyke Abbecker Posch, 32-lb. dam, 3123 lbs. milk in 39 days—117 lbs. in one day—4.30 test.

Daughters of Allamuchy Hartog Pontiac, dam 34 lbs. butter in 7 days and daughter of, and heifers and cows bred to Rag Apple Korn-dyke 8th (six times Pontiac Korn-dyke in his pedigree, the greatest transmitting sire of the breed). His dam, Pontiac Lady Korn-dyke, 38 lbs. of butter in seven days. Also females bred to Rag Apple Korn-dyke Chief, dam with 32-lb. record and a wonderful transmitting sire. These are among the greatest producing families of the breed.

It has not been our intention to offer these splendid animals at Public Auction, but dissolution of partnership and removal from Dixon makes this necessary. These animals, in most cases, are our foundation stock. One daughter of Woodcrest Hengerveld De Kol, bred to Rag Apple 8th, we never expected to part with, so many others, but they will go and you make the price.

Sale begins at 1:30 sharp each afternoon. Pavilion only two blocks from C. & N. W. and I. C. depots.

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

NELSON

(Miss Tina Ortigiesen.) Due to the excessive amount of freight traffic from the two divisions, five switch engines have been installed at the Nelson yards Thursday. This is the greatest amount of switching ever handled at this place.

One of the John Ortigiesen, Sr., residences occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Schick was slightly damaged by fire caused from sparks from a defective chimney. The building would have been completely destroyed but for the kind and timely assistance of the neighbors. The residence was fully insured and will be repaired at once. Insurance was carried in the F. X. Newcomer Co., of Dixon.

E. Longabaugh has been quite ill for several days and under a physician's care.

Mrs. K. F. Siebolt has been a guest of Dixon relatives.

Mrs. Gus Onken has been visiting in Sterling with friends.

Wall St. Hears Banks May Withdraw Money

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Jan. 13.—Today's stock sales were influenced by rumors that the banks may be compelled to withdraw funds from the open market to meet additional payments to the government thus accelerating the further reactions of the morning. Much of the selling here the marks of professional pressure, especially in high priced issues. General Motors and Crucible Steel were the central features of such a movement at declines of 1/2% and 3/4% points respectively. Irregular rallies set in before noon, but trading halted perceptibly when call money opened at 86¢. The closing was firm.

WOODYATT MADE HIGH RUN OF 11 BUT LOST
